

KARYOPHARM THERAPEUTICS INC.

COMPLIANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER

Adopted by the Board of Directors on February 23, 2018

A. Purpose

The purpose of the Compliance Committee (the “Compliance Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Karyopharm Therapeutics Inc. (the “Company”) is to assist the Board with oversight of the Company’s non-financial compliance program by overseeing, evaluating and monitoring the Company’s compliance policies, standards, procedures, systems and initiatives as well as the Company’s information technology systems dedicated to quality, regulatory and commercial compliance.

B. Structure and Membership

1. Number. The Compliance Committee shall consist of at least three members of the Board.
2. Chair. Unless the Board elects a Chair of the Compliance Committee, the Compliance Committee shall elect a Chair by majority vote.
3. Compensation. The compensation of Compliance Committee members shall be as determined by the Board.
4. Selection and Removal. Members of the Compliance Committee shall be appointed by the Board, upon the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The Board may remove members of the Compliance Committee from such committee, with or without cause.

C. Authority and Responsibilities

Authority

The Compliance Committee shall discharge its responsibilities and shall assess the information provided to it by the Company’s management and others, in accordance with its business judgment. Together with the Audit Committee of the Board (the “Audit Committee”), the Compliance Committee shall assist the Board in its oversight of compliance matters. The Audit Committee shall have sole oversight of matters of financial compliance, including accounting, financial reporting, internal control over financial reporting, disclosure controls and procedures, and financial risk resulting from compliance matters. As to all other areas of compliance (non-financial compliance), the Compliance Committee shall have primary oversight.

Responsibilities

The Compliance Committee's responsibilities are to:

1. Oversee implementation of and monitor the Company's non-financial compliance program, including policies, standards, procedures, systems and initiatives, with a focus on quality, regulatory and commercial compliance matters.
2. Evaluate, monitor and discuss with senior management the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's non-financial compliance program and compliance assurance systems and initiatives and consider recommendations for improvement thereof.
3. Assist the Audit Committee in assessing financial risk arising from non-financial compliance matters.
4. Make findings and recommendations to the Board regarding the adequacy of the Company's non-financial compliance program.
5. Perform any other duties as may be delegated from time to time by the Board.
6. Perform any other activities consistent with this Charter as the Compliance Committee may deem necessary and appropriate for the fulfilment of its responsibilities under this Charter or as required by applicable law or regulation.

D. Procedures and Administration

1. Meetings. The Compliance Committee shall meet as often as it deems necessary in order to perform its responsibilities. The Compliance Committee may also act by unanimous written consent in lieu of a meeting. The Compliance Committee shall keep such records of its meetings as it shall deem appropriate.
2. Subcommittees. The Compliance Committee may form and delegate authority to one or more subcommittees (including a subcommittee consisting of a single member) as it deems appropriate from time to time under the circumstances.
3. Reports to Board. The Compliance Committee shall report regularly to the Board.
4. Charter. At least annually, the Compliance Committee shall review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.
5. Independent Advisors. The Compliance Committee is authorized, without further action by the Board, to engage such independent legal and other advisors as it deems necessary or appropriate to carry out its responsibilities. Such independent advisors may be the regular advisors to the Company. The Compliance Committee is empowered, without further action by the Board, to cause the Company to pay the compensation of such advisors as established by the Compliance Committee.

6. Investigations. The Compliance Committee shall have the authority to conduct or authorize investigations into any matters within the scope of its responsibilities as it shall deem appropriate, including the authority to request any officer, employee or advisor of the Company to meet with the Compliance Committee or any advisors engaged by the Compliance Committee.
7. Funding. The Compliance Committee is empowered, without further action by the Board, to cause the Company to pay the ordinary administrative expenses of the Compliance Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.
8. Self-Evaluation. The Compliance Committee shall periodically evaluate its own performance.
