

Karyopharm Therapeutics Announces Management Change

NEWTON, Mass., Oct. 26, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Karyopharm Therapeutics Inc. (Nasdaq:KPTI), a clinical-stage pharmaceutical company, today announced that Mike Falvey, Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer, intends to leave the company to pursue other interests. Mr. Falvey will continue his current responsibilities until a successor is named to ensure there is no disruption in the financial leadership of the Company. An executive search will commence immediately to fill the position.

"Mike has played an important role at Karyopharm over the past year including in our two successful financings which will support the development of our clinical pipeline and first commercial launch anticipated in the first half of 2019," said Michael G. Kauffman, MD, Ph.D., Chief Executive Officer of Karyopharm. "On behalf of our entire management team, I want to thank Mike for his many contributions and wish him the best in his future endeavors."

"It has been a privilege to work for Karyopharm and to have played a part in the growth of such an inspirational company," said Mike Falvey, CFO. "I know I will leave Karyopharm in a position to help make a positive impact on the lives of patients and I look forward to the Company's continued success and growth."

About Karyopharm Therapeutics

Karyopharm Therapeutics Inc. (Nasdaq:KPTI) is a clinical-stage pharmaceutical company focused on the discovery and development of novel first-in-class drugs directed against nuclear transport and related targets for the treatment of cancer and other major diseases. Karyopharm's SINE compounds function by binding with and inhibiting the nuclear export protein XPO1 (or CRM1). In addition to single-agent and combination activity against a variety of human cancers, SINE compounds have also shown biological activity in models of neurodegeneration, inflammation, autoimmune disease, certain viruses and wound-healing. Karyopharm, which was founded by Dr. Sharon Shacham, currently has several investigational programs in clinical or preclinical development.
